To my husband, your presence fills and completes me.

Inspired by “L”,

Message from the author.

Use the SUNRISE
ORACLE to unlock the tapestry of your emotions.

These 58 cards and deck came to me during moments of profound reflection on the many different types of life's journeys one experiences when the mantra-"the sun always rises" came to mind.

The Sun's vibrations, through its radiant energy, have a powerful and profound impact on our emotional state. We feel this when we walk outside and feel the sun's warmth on our faces. The Sun's strength is felt although it sits 93 million miles away.

This brightness evokes vitality, optimism, and joy, lifting our spirits and energizing our being. The Sun's frequency influences the secretion of serotonin, a neurotransmitter linked to mood regulation, promoting a sense of well-being and contentment. Conversely, fluctuations in solar activity can disrupt this delicate balance.

Rooted in the timeless wisdom of “the sun always rises”, the SUNRISE ORACLE Deck is a transformative tool, and it invites you to uncover profound insights that fuel personal growth and empowerment. Much like the sun's rays, which can evoke both comforting warmth and scorching heat our emotions can span from gentleness to an overwhelming intensity, profoundly shaping our inner experiences. With each card you will explore the interplay between your inner emotional landscape and the radiant power of the sun, learning to navigate the spectrum of feelings and energies within yourself. Embrace the journey to awaken your spirit of self-discovery, trust your intuition, and warmly welcome new possibilities as you illuminate your essence.

The Sun is a conductor of solar vibrations. Its rays serve for our rejuvenation and its energy affects our mood and emotions. We recognize the Sun's radiance, and our emotional frequencies are intertwined. We can choose to bask in the Sun or seek shade as the Sun's frequencies intensify. We discover and honor the Sun's shifting landscape. As we embark on this understanding, we can learn the ebbs and flows with the waves and pulses of our emotional rhythms. We gauge how we use our emotions to foster interactions or to influence ourselves and others. When we materialize our ability to increase the vibration of our emotional frequency, we come to know what we are feeling. This feeling state of acceptance is a place where there is less emphasis on the extremes of the emotion as it is a place to sit within the emotion. Here you can allow the feeling to reside, and you live within it completely. This does not mean you stay there, nor ignore it by saying "Oh that is ridiculous" or "I don't want to feel this way". It means you gain comprehension of the reason for feeling what you are feeling.

This is where Oracle cards come in. As a tool, when you choose a card from the 58 provided in the SUNRISE ORACLE deck you are intuitively proclaiming the need to look deeper into the kaleidoscope of your emotions. The process of perceiving and appreciating our emotions assists us in releasing any judgment or harshness to the emotional contrasts we may be feeling. As you alleviate the personal discomfort that can accompany interpersonal interactions, you begin to foster a gentler and more compassionate atmosphere where understanding and empathy can flourish. It is at this time of AWAKENING YOUR TRUE SPIRIT. By aligning with the Sun's rhythms, we enrich our emotional harmony and lived experience.

I've often repeated the mantra- "the sun always rises" when a fresh outlook is emerging.

THE SUNRISE ORACLE DECK CARDS PURPOSE

To open your intuitive organic process and gain perspective of your emotional landscape, each card has the same image minimizing any interference of preconceived notions.

Simplistic and elegant the image of the sun on each card draws you into the breath and depth of the sun's full rays. They burst forward glorious, embracing, radiant, and luminous from its white center. With the colors of honeycomb, amber, and yellow, a tapestry of elegance and warmth comes through. Streaked with hues of blues, teals and a splash of red the color palette tells us there is incredible expansiveness to how the Sun will portray its masterpiece. So too are the array of our emotions weaved and rich in possibilities that can radiate warmth, tenderness, balance, growth, enthusiasm, strain, stability, wisdom, compassion, patience, coolness, somberness and so much more. Consider what emotions are stirred as you see the word prompt on each card. While immersed in your contemplation you will gently gain a vantage point and begin to maximize clarity on the situation at hand. This is the place where you will develop a realistic relationship towards your feelings.

HOW TO USE THIS DECK

Witness the radiance of emotions emulating the Sun's cycles. As the Sun rises it illuminates possibilities and what lies hidden. As you awaken to your emotions you hold the power and strength to bask or scorch with your emotions.

Each card has a word to prompt a stirring of emotions that become present and are there to assist you in delving deeper into your inquiry and self-exploration. While immersed in your contemplation you will gently gain a vantage point and begin to maximize clarity on the situation at hand. This is the place where you will develop a realistic relationship towards your feelings.

The Sun always rises and serves as a powerful reminder that within each of us resides the potential for boundless growth and transformation. By embracing this certainty of insight, you unlock the true essence of your being and embark on a journey of self-discovery that knows no limits. stream flows freely over rocks. Though the color of the sky is hazy in the early morning hours, not a single cloud can be seen, promising a hot sunny day.

The sight of the sunlight beams like a beacon, to serve as a guiding force for your journey of self-exploration. It symbolizes a choice

forward.*

Embedded within the human spirit is an innate resilience, an unwavering certainty that insight and growth are not only possible but inevitable. It is a recognition that, no matter the challenges or darkness one may face, there exists an inexhaustible wellspring of inner wisdom waiting to be tapped. In the journey of personal transformation, this understanding serves as a guiding light, illuminating the path forward through the complexities of life. Just as the sun casts its rays upon the world, infusing it with light and warmth, so too does insight infuse our lives with clarity and understanding. Insight empowers us to navigate the twists and turns of our existence with purpose and determination, knowing that within us lies the capacity to overcome adversity and emerge stronger on the other side. At times, the journey we take may seem daunting, shrouded in the shadows of doubt and uncertainty. Moments of clarity and revelation pierce through the veil of confusion, just as the sun breaks through the darkness at dawn. It is in these moments of insight that we find the courage to confront our fears, embrace our vulnerabilities, and embark on the path of personal growth with renewed vigor. These cards are created to provide guidance and perspective on your lived experience.

Using an oracle card deck for introspection can be a powerful tool for self-reflection and gaining insight into what is going on in your life. By using a single word from an oracle card as a prompt for journal writing you can tap into your inner wisdom, gain clarity, and deepen your understanding of yourself and your life journey.

Choosing an oracle card or several invites your intuition to choose the card that resonates most deeply with your current state of emotional being or inquiry. Taking the next step of using the word prompts for introspection from the oracle cards is a beautifully organic process of self-discovery that will naturally unfold.

As you lay out one or more cards the word prompts guide your attention to the specific aspects of its meaning for you. The process is both fluid and dynamic, as you surrender and trust what is happening and allow yourself to be open and curious about the card's meaning.

INTERPRETING THE CARDS

Each card has a description followed by a Prosperity statement.

The Prosperity statement is an affirmation, declaration, or can be a mantra. It's to encourage you towards a desired belief, attitude, or outcome. You can use it as a tool for self-improvement, personal growth, and empowerment. If you're seeking a more profound exploration as part of your reflection, each card offers thought-provoking questions that serve as prompts for journaling. These questions encourage introspection and deeper understanding, allowing you to delve into the nuances of your thoughts, feelings, and experiences.

WORKING WITH CARD SPREADS

SINGLE-CARD

Using one card for guidance in oracle card readings involves drawing a single card from the deck and interpreting its message to gain insights, clarity, and guidance on a specific question or situation.

It's a time to pause, reflect, and gain insight into your inquiry. Take note of what pops into your head, thoughts or feelings.

THREE-CARD SPREAD

Using three cards in an oracle card reading allows for a more comprehensive exploration of a question or situation. The 3-card spread can be assigned a specific meaning- 'Past, Present, Future', 'Mind, Body, Spirit', or any grouping you would like. Look for symmetry, contradictions, repetitions, or harmony. This spread allows for each card to be interpreted singularly as well as in sequence and as a full story. The choice is yours on how to interpret this spread.

ILLUMINATION SPREAD

Exploring the deck through the 5-card spread offers a profound journey of insight and understanding. It's essential to carefully consider the significance of each position, ensuring a cohesive connection between the placement and the meaning of the card drawn. This spread method provides a structured narrative, unfolding the story of your current inquiry step by step. Each card position holds a specific purpose, guiding you through the layers of your exploration and offering comprehensive insight into your circumstances, challenges, and potential outcomes.

If you're conducting a spread with multiple cards, pay attention to the connections and relationships between them. Notice how each card contributes to the overarching narrative or theme of your reading. Look for patterns, contrasts, and synchronicities that emerge across the cards.
